Dated: 01/12/22

OFFICE ORDER

In PM-UDAY portal, flow for payment activation has been changed. Payment of applicable charges as per regulation shall be activated by Assistant Director (AD) only after the approval of the competent authority i.e. Deputy Director/Director, as the case may be.

Approved cases i.e those which were present in the execution module have been remanded back to the concerned AD. Therefore, the concerned AD's are directed to forward such cases for execution for further processing. Further, the cases where execution had already been done but not yet disposed off , such cases may also be immediately disposed off.

In cases, where the payment has been activated but not yet deposited by the applicant, such cases may be processed for approval of the competent authority i.e. Deputy Director/Director and thereafter the payment be activated as per the present workflow.

In those cases where the payment had already been made by the applicant before approval of competent authority i.e. Deputy Director/Director, such cases shall be processed immediately for obtaining approval. In such cases at the time of approval of A.D, it will be recorded that the applicable charges have been received and the Challan No. and date is to be clearly indicated

This issues with the approval of the competent authority.
