SOP OF RECORD ROOM AT PRESS BUILDING

1. Purpose

The record room at Press Building, Vikas Sadan has been conceived to safeguard valuable records of various departments of DDA. The safekeeping of the records will ensure their safety against tampering, fire accident, insects, thefts, etc. The organized record keeping will assist in easy retrieval of records.

2. Salient Features of Record Room

2.1. Equipments/Furniture required

Sl. No.	Equipment/Furniture Type	Quantity Required
1.	Computer	4
2.	Barcode Machine	2
3.	Computer Table	4
4.	Chairs for computer table	4
5.	Chairs and tables for staff	10

2.2. Installation

The record room should be equipped with all the above equipment/furniture. The civil and electrical departments will take care of all the necessary fittings in the record room.

2.3. Maintenance and Supervision

Since the record room will store sensitive records, the room should be pest free to ensure safety of the documents. The civil department will ensure the cleaning and maintenance of the room under the supervision of the AD (record room) or any other person designated for such work.

2.4. Documents to be stored

Files will be stored in the record room after the same has been authorized by the concerned Dy. Director for safekeeping in the record room. However, obsolete records will be weeded out before sending them to the record room for storing in compactors.

2.5. Staff

Following staff will be posted in the record room:

- a) Assistant Director (proficient in computer) -1 no.
- b) Junior Secretariat Assistant (proficient in computer)- 3 nos.
- c) Data Entry Operator- 3 nos.
- d) MTS -3 nos.
- e) Peon/Daftari-4 nos.

3. Roles and Responsibilities

3.1. Dy. Director (User Department)

The Dy. Director of the concerned department should ensure that obsolete records are weeded out before submitting the useful records for safekeeping in the record room. The records to be submitted should have all the requisite details such as file no., subject(bilingual), no. of pages on noting and correspondence side, mentioned on the file cover. Dy. Director(User Department) will ensure that no loose/torn records are sent for safekeeping in the record room. A declaration regarding the same needs to be submitted along with the records.

3.2. Dy. Director(Systems)

Dy. Director(System) will ensure that all the equipments like computer systems, barcode machines etc., are installed in the record room along with record keeping software to maintain the records.

3.3. AD(Record Room)

The AD of the record room will be overall in-charge of the record room. Safekeeping of all records inside the record room will be the responsibility of the AD (record room). The AD (record room) will allocate compactors department and branch-wise, according to the quantum of records to be stored.

3.4. JSA

JSA will be responsible for maintenance of details of submission and extraction of the records. They will also maintain the record keeping register. Any other task could be assigned by the AD (record room).

3.5. DEO

DEO will be assigned the work of barcoding the files, assigning sections for storage, retrieval, etc. Any other task could be assigned by the AD (record room).

3.6. MTS/Daftari/Peon

MTS will be assigned the work of assisting the staff of record room in miscellaneous works such as storage, retrieval of records, regular cleaning of stored records, etc.. Any other task could be assigned by the AD (record room).

4. Submission and Extraction of Records

4.1. Submission of Records

The records to be submitted must be accompanied by the declaration of the concerned Dy. Director that the records being submitted are duly scrutinized and does not contain any obsolete records. Upon submission of the records, the JSA of the record room will tag the records with the appropriate barcode and make the entry into the software. The DEO then will place the concerned record(s) in the appropriate place designated for them.

4.2. Extraction of Records

The records to be extracted should be handed over to the authorized person (the authorized person must carry an authorization letter issued by the concerned Dy.Director) after making appropriate entries into the system. The authorized person must sign the register for the receiving the records.

The responsibility to return the records to the record room lies with the concerned Dy.Director. The onus of maintaining the record will be completely upon the concerned Dy.Director during the period record is not in the record room.

4.3. Re-submission of Records

Upon return of the extracted record, the same must be placed at the designated place for the record. Appropriate entries must be made immediately in the record keeping register and should be signed by both the returning official and the JSA of the record room.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

RECORD RETENTION SCHEDULE IN RESPECT OF RECORDS
COMMON TO ALL MINISTRIES/ DEPARTMENTS

2012

DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE REFORMS & PUBLIC GRIEVANCES
SARDAR PATEL BHAWAN, SANSAD MARG, NEW DELHI-110001

P R E F A C E

The Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances in the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions, is entrusted with the responsibility of preparing Record Retention Schedule common to all Ministries and Departments, so that there is uniformity in the retention schedule of records of common nature in the area of policy, establishment and housekeeping created by the different Ministries/Departments of Central Government. With the assistance of a working group, having members from the Staff Inspection Unit of the Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Home Affairs and Comptroller and Auditor General, the first schedule was prepared and was circulated among the departments in January, 1963. The last edition was brought out in 2004. This edition was arranged according to the Scheme of Functional File Index for facilitating recording of the files.

With a view to bring economy of space, efficiency in retrieval of documents and coming into being of the Right to Information Act-2005 & the need for storage of electronic data/information, a need was felt to revise the Record Retention Schedule. The Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances had invited suggestions/comments from various Ministries/ Departments of Government of India. The suggestions, thus, received and further inputs provided were considered by an Inter-departmental Committee headed by JS(O&M), DAR&PG and members from National Archives of India, Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances, Ministry of Culture, Department of Information Technology, National Informatics Centre and Department of Personnel.

I am glad to state that based on the recommendations of the Inter-departmental Committee, the Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances is bringing out a revised edition of the Record Retention Schedule. I hope this will go a long way in enabling the Central Government offices to properly operate their records management system.

Any suggestions for improvement of this Schedule will be welcome.

(Shri Sanjay Kothari)
Secretary, Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Record Management has always remained a critical activity of the government departments, as it is viewed as key to efficient administration. The Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances is responsible for formulation of guidelines on Record Management and preparation of Record Retention Schedule (RRS) for records common to all Ministries/Departments of Government of India to ensure that there is uniformity in retention schedule of records of common nature. On formulation of the Schedule, utmost care is taken to ensure that files are neither prematurely destroyed nor kept for period longer than necessary. The Schedule is reviewed periodically.

An inter-departmental Committee headed by the Joint Secretary (O&M), DAR&PG was constituted on 20.03.2012 comprising of members from the Ministry of Culture, Department of Electronics, Department of Personnel & Training, National Archives of India, National Informatics Centre as also the Dir (O&M), Dir (AR), DS (e-Gov) and US (O&M) from DAR&PG to review the Record Retention Schedule. The Terms of Reference (TOR) of the Committee comprised of (i) consideration of all basic policy issues relating to RRS with reference to suggestions received from various Ministries/Departments as well as to make other recommendations for Updation of RRS, (ii) examination of issues relating to preservations of records in electronic form with the perspective of e-Governance and (iii) prescribing retention period for files relating to RTI cases. Based on the recommendations of the Committee the revised Record Retention Schedule (2012) was finalized on 03.12.2012.

The members of the Committee took special interest to go through the details and it is on account of their commitment and dedication that the revised RRS could be finalized much before the prescribed target date of the Department's Results Framework Document (RFD) for the year 2012-13. The Department would like to place on record special appreciation of Shri Arun Kumar Srivastava, Assistant Director (NAI) for his valuable suggestions on some important issues. The Department would also like to place on record special appreciation for the invaluable contribution of Shri Arvind Sun-Dir, Shri Anurag Srivastava-US, Smt. Uma Sharma-SO, Smt. Neeru Verma-PS and Shri Sunil Kumar-DEO of O&M Division and Smt. Ritika Bhatia-Dir(AR) and Smt. Kavita Garg-DS(e.Gov) in the finalization of Record Retention Schedule.

The Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances would be grateful if the users of this publication send more suggestions for the improvement of the Schedule.

(Shri P.K. Tiwari)
Joint Secretary, Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The schedule follows the classification, arrangement and numbering scheme adopted for the functional file index for establishments and house-keeping work.
2. Categorisation of records have been done in accordance with Central Secretariat Manual of Office Procedure (CSMOP). Wherever necessary reference has been made to General Financial Rules (GFR) Appendix 13. Both GFR Appendix 13 and CSMOP Appendix 28 have been incorporated as annexures.
3. Those items of the functional file index, for which it has not been possible to prescribe rigid retention periods, have been omitted from this schedule.
4. Where necessary, additional main heads and sub-heads have been opened under the appropriate 'group headings' and 'main heads' respectively.
5. Retention periods for records (other than files) e.g. registers, for which no files are to be opened and which, therefore, are not covered by the functional file index, have been shown under the appropriate group headings at the end.
6. Retention periods for records common to all departments, but not relating to establishment and house-keeping work, and therefore not covered by the functional file index, have been shown at the end of the schedule.
7. Unless otherwise stated the records described in column 2 of the schedule refer to files. Where necessary, other ancillary records pertaining to such files like mortgage deeds or bonds, nomination form, etc. would have to be retained as specifically indicated in column 4 against the relevant items.
8. The retention period specified in column 3, in the case of a file, is to be reckoned from the year in which the file is closed (i.e. action thereon has been completed) and not necessarily from the year in which it is recorded.
9. In the case of records other than files, for example, registers, the prescribed retention period will be counted from the date on which it has ceased to be current.
10. If a record relates to two or more subjects for which different retention periods have been prescribed, it will be retained for the highest of such periods.
11. In exceptional cases, i.e. if the record has certain special features or such a course is warranted by the peculiar needs of the department, the record may be retained for a period longer than that specified in the schedule, in no case, however, will a record be retained for a period shorter than that prescribed in the schedule.

12. If a record is required in connection with the disposal of another record, the former will not be weeded out until after all the issues raised on the latter have been finally decided, even though the retention period marked on the former may have expired in the meantime. In fact, the retention periods initially marked on such records should be consciously reviewed and, where necessary, revised suitably.
13. The individual Ministries/Departments are requested to ensure that the provisions contained in the Record Retention Schedule are strictly followed.

NOTE - 'Department' means any of the ministries, departments, secretarial and offices mentioned in the First Schedule to the Government of India (Allocation of Business) Rules.

Categorization of Records

Physical Records* - File may be recorded under any one of the following category.

- (1) Category 'A' meaning 'keep and microfilm'.
 - (a) files which qualify for permanent preservation for administrative purposes and which have to be microfilmed because they contain:
 - (i) a document so precious that its original must be preserved intact and access to it in the original form must be restricted to the barest minimum to avoid its damage or loss, or
 - (ii) material likely to be required for frequent reference by different parties simultaneously/frequently.
 - (b) files of historical importance.
- (2) Category 'B' meaning 'keep but do not microfilm'. This category will cover files required for permanent preservation for administrative purpose. It will, however, exclude the nature of material falling under the category described in (i) or (ii) of sub-para (1) (a) above and therefore need not be microfilmed.
- (3) Category 'C' meaning 'keep for specified period only'. This category will include files of secondary importance having reference value for a limited period not exceeding 10 years. In exceptional cases, if the record is required to be retained beyond 10 years it will be upgraded to B Category. C-3, C-5 & C-10 means Category 'C' files to be kept for 3 years, 5 years and 10 years respectively.

Electronic Records - e-Files/records may be digitized any one of the category.

- (1) Category-I (e-Files/records to preserved permanently on which are of historical importance) - For 10 years, it will be kept in the Department's server and thereafter transferred to the server of the National Archives of India.
- (2) Category -II (e-Files/records of secondary importance and have a reference value for a limited period) - 10 years on the Department's server. In exceptional cases, if the record is required to be retained beyond 10 years it will be upgraded to Category-I.

J- Electronic Records

There will only be two categories of e-files i.e. Category-I and Category-II

S.No.	Subjects/records groups	Proposed Retention Period	Remarks
1.	Category I The e-files which are to be preserved permanently or which are of historical importance. The e-files included under this category will be as follows:- <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) e-files containing evidence of rights or obligations of or against the government, e.g., title to property, claims for compensation not subject to a time limit, formal instruments such as awards, schemes, orders, sanctions, (2) e-files relating to major policy decisions, including those relating to the preparation of legislation. (3) e-files regarding constitution, functions and working of important committees, working groups, etc. (4) e-files providing lasting precedents for important procedures, e.g. administrative memoranda, historical reports and summaries, legal opinions on important matters. (5) e-files concerning rules, regulations, Departmental guides or instructions of general application. (6) e-files relating to salient features of organization and staffing of government Departments and offices. (7) e-files relating to important litigation or 'causes celebres' in which the administration was involved. (8) e-files relating to the origin of a Department or agency of government, how it was organized, how it functioned, and (if 	For 10 years, it will be kept in the Department's server and thereafter transferred to the server of the National Archives of India (NAI).

clarifying how and why it was dissolved	(9) Deal about what the Department/agency accomplished (perhaps by way of illustration may be enough, but the need for such samples may be dispersed with where published annual reports are available) (10) e-files relating to a change of policy. This is not always easy to recognize, but watch should be kept for (a) summary for a Minister, (b) the appointment of a Departmental or inter-Departmental committee or working group, and (c) notes for the Cabinet or a Cabinet Committee. Generally there should be a note on a staff to present all such papers including those reflecting conflicting points of view. In the case of inter-Departmental committees, however, it is important that a complete set of papers be kept only by the Department mainly concerned - usually the one providing secretariat. (11) e-files relating to the implementation of a change of policy, including a complete set of instructions to executing agencies etc. and relevant forms. (12) e-files relating to a well-known public or international event or cause celebre, or to other events which gave rise to interest or controversy on the national plane. (13) e-files containing direct reference to trends or developments in political, social, economic or other fields, particularly if they contain unpublished statistical or financial data covering a long period or a wide area. (14) e-files cited in or noted as consulted in connection with, official publications.

		(15) e-files relating to the more important aspects of scientific or technical research and development. (16) e-files containing matters of local interest of which it is unreasonable to expect that evidence will be available locally, or comprising synopsis of such information covering the whole country or a wide area. (17) e-files relating to obsolete activities or investigations, or to abortive schemes in important fields. (18) Any other specific category of records which, according to the Departmental instructions issued in consultation with the National Archives, have to be treated as genuine source of information on any aspect of history-political, social, economic, etc., or are considered to be of biographical or antiquarian interest.
2.	Category II This category will include e-files of secondary importance and having reference value for a limited period.	Upto 10 years akin to the retention period of physical files/records on the Department's server. In exceptional cases, if the record is required to be retained beyond 10 years it will be upgraded to Category I.

Note: Refer National Digital Presentation Programme (DPP) and Digital Preservation Policy (DPP) being formulated by the Department of Information Technology for e-files and e-records.
