O.O. No. 13

Dated: 30.04.2020

OFFICE ORDER

In partial modification to the Office Order No. 98 dated 27.12.2011, the competent authority has decided that the officers who have been provided the facilities of Cell Phone shall have the option to retain them after paying the revised depreciated cost in case of superannuation, resignation, voluntary retirement or reverting to their parent department.

2. The revised depreciated cost shall be charged as per the following rates: -
 - a) Less than one year - 40%
 - b) One year to two years - 20%
 - c) Two years to three years - 10%
 - d) More than three years - 0%
3. The depreciated cost shall be calculated from the date of entitlement/date of joining DDA.
4. Officers on deputation to DDA will be allowed to retain their mobile phones on repatriation to Govt. of India. However, they would not be entitled to procure new mobile phones at their new place of posting till the depreciated cost of the mobile phone becomes 0%. After the depreciated cost of the mobile phone becomes 0%, the same can be retained by the officer and need not be returned to Nazarat Branch.
5. The other terms and conditions will remain unchanged.
