SUB: COORDINATION PROBLEM BETWEEN DDA
AND MCD REGARDING USE OF SOME DISPUTED
LAND IN DELHI.

During the recent past, Hon'ble Chief Minister of Delhi has observed that there has been a problem of coordination between DDA and MCD with regard to use of some portions of land which are claimed by both the organisations.

In order that the development/construction programmes of DDA and MCD do not suffer, Hon'ble Lt.Governor of Delhi has directed that :

1. All problems that may arise regarding mutual claims over land should be settled by discussions between Zonal Officers of MCD and DDA.
2. In the event of disagreement, they should send a joint note to VC,DDA and Commissioner,MCD who would then meet and decide the issue.

It is, therefore, enjoined upon all the officers of DDA to note the above directions and take action for all such disputed lands accordingly.

This issues as per directions of Vice-Chairman,DDA.
