CIRCULAR No. 295

In a particular contract, certain conditions offered by the contractor were not got modified in writing by the contractor before indicating the acceptance of the tender and certain doubtful condition causing ambiguity were left unincorporated in the agreement by the tender accepting officer.

This has caused certain problems later on.

It is, therefore, enjoined upon all concerned to ensure that before acceptance of tender, all the ambiguous conditions offered by the contractor which may lead to contractual complications are invariably got clarified or corrected in writing before acceptance of the tender.
