

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY.

NO. EM1(10)83/Circular/16072

DATED: 31/8/89

Circular No. 206.

To facilitate contractors to submit well planned and clear bids, it has been decided that henceforth the tender documents should be available for issue to contractors atleast 14 days before the date of opening of tenders. These documents on proper dates should be available with the persons who actually sell the tender documents.

Contractors should be encouraged to submit tenders through registered post. Depositing of the sealed tenders to the officers may also be done but then it should be done only with the appropriate authorised responsible persons.

It is for the office, who is to receive the tenders to ensure above arrangement.

Tenders should be open to all tenders should be open to all, at the appropriate time for opening
