

DELHI DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

PUBLIC NOTICE

DDA is going to hold a Draw of plots in r/o all the eligible beneficiaries whose names have been recommended and verified by the Land & Building Department for allotment of alternative plots measuring 250 Sq. Yds.

The seniority list in r/o all eligible persons has been prepared and is available on the official website of DDA i.e. dda.gov.in. All the recommendees whose allotment is pending may check their names in the said seniority list. In case the name of any recommendee is not reflecting in the list, they may submit the original recommendation letter along with all other relevant documents related to the recommendation of an alternative plot within 15 days from the date of publication of this notice so that the seniority list may be updated accordingly.

Further, it is also informed that there are certain cases where plots were allotted earlier and the concerned applicants/recommendees have filed court cases/litigation in respect of such allotments. The names of such applicants have presently not been included in the seniority list. However, such cases may be considered for inclusion in the draw process subject to withdrawal/disposal of the concerned court cases by the applicants and submission of relevant documentary proof thereof.

All the recommendees are also requested to provide their present residential address, Email ID and contact details for future correspondence.

Further, the proposed draw shall be held subject to verification/authenticity of the recommendation letters and related records/documents received from the Land & Building Department and possession of the plot will be offered on receipt of confirmation of recommendation from the L&B Department and other concerned authorities.
