The Hon'ble Lt Governor also inaugurated and dedicated a water body to the residents of the village. This water body will aid farming and other groundwater allied activities in the village. Deepening and de-silting of the water body was undertaken and is now fit for rainwater to be collected in it, instead of overflowing in drains.

Besides, footpath has been constructed around the water body and plantation work has also been completed, which will not only beautify the village but will also promote physical well-being among the villagers as they can enjoy morning and evening walks around the water body and keep themselves fit.

To encourage artisans who make beautiful environment-friendly clay utensils, Hon'ble Lt Governor distributed electric potter wheels to them while appreciating their hard work.

UNVEILING OF RESTORED HERITAGE STRUCTURES AT MEHRAULI ARCHAEOLOGICAL PARK BY HON'BLE LT. GOVERNOR DELHI

LG, VK Saxena unveiled restored heritage structures at Mehrauli Archaeological Park as part of his sustained efforts to preserve Delhi's rich heritage.

In line with the vision of Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi to promote 'Vikas Bhi, Virasat Bhi', Shri Vinai Kumar Saxena, Hon'ble Lt Governor Delhi on 20.10.2023, unveiled restored heritage structures at Mehrauli Archaeological Park as part of the Government's mission to conserve Delhi's rich heritage and its ancient glory.

The restoration works include transformation of Quli Khan Tomb, Balban Tomb complex, Metcalf Boathouse, rejuvenated water body, and illuminated monuments.

At least 55 heritage monuments have been interconnected with a pathway.

Smt. Meenakshi Lekhi, Hon'ble Minister of State for Culture, Government of India, and Shri Subhasish Panda, Vice Chairman, DDA were also present on the occasion.

The LG had been personally monitoring the entire project and several coordination meetings were held under his supervision to resolve various pending issues, ensuring proper coordination among various departments. All the works were completed in record time due to the regular monitoring and site inspections by the LG.

Hon'ble Lt Governor said, "Within 6 to 7 months, this place has transformed. People of Delhi deserve good places where they can spend leisure time with their family and we are making all efforts to revive heritage places." The cost of the project is approximately Rs 2.6 crore.

The Mehrauli Archaeological Park now boasts of restored and conserved heritage structures including Balban's Tomb complex, which was once completely covered with weeds. It has improved landscaping and additional greens in and around restored historic structures. Vantage points have been created for mesmerizing view of Qutub Minar from the park. Similarly, Quli Khan Tomb which was lying in a dilapidated state, has been restored with intricate interior works. The monuments have been interconnected with pathway and access has been given to all the 55-heritage structures of the park, which was earlier missing.

The Park also has rejuvenated water body near Metcalfe Boathouse with aerator fountains, cascade and illumination. Besides, important heritage structures/monuments have also been illuminated. There are adequate public amenities for visitors to spend leisure time in the park.

The restoration and conservation works have been done on the principles of heritage conservation maintaining the authenticity and structural integrity of the structures. Also, suitable adaptive reuses have been proposed to enhance the visitors experience and to preserve the historical and cultural value of heritage structures while giving them new functions and uses as per the global practice.

The Masterplan, 2021 and Unified Building Bye Laws, 2016 of Delhi immensely promotes the adaptive re-use of historic buildings and this principle has been applied in the park. The restoration and repair work has been carried out using the traditional materials and techniques Lime Surkhi, prepared using Ural dal and other organic additives.

DDA has been playing pivotal role in restoring the heritage structures in the National Capital. Conservation of St. James Church and Hazrat Nizamuddin Basti Renewal are some of the other projects undertaken by DDA recently.
